HEAVY SNOWFALL; POOR NEED ASSISTANCE

The sudden descent of snow interrupted the rain of yesterday morning and for a time had things going all its own way. This was due to a change in the temperature of the upper air-currents. The fall was heavy for some time, and the fakes were unusually large, but on account of the railf that had preceded the snow disappeared as fast as it came down.

The weather bureau promises no better weather for to-day. The outlook is for more rain or snow with clearing skies by to-morrow.

The necessity for prompt action on the part of general-disposed citizens in the way of rendering assistance to the poor is daily becoming more apparent. COMPEL COMMISSIONER TO ASSESS REINACH

An interesting case was disposed of in the Hustings Court yesterday, the effect of which will be to compel the Commissioners of the Revenue to assess for poll taxes all persons by whom such taxes are due, even though they are not properly registered as voters.

The case arose on an application for a mandamus by Mr. Isaac Reinach, through his counsel, Mr. R. E. Peyton, Jr., to compel Commissioner Hawkins to assess the applicant for poll taxes for the years 1901-1902 and 1903 and an order to this effect was entered by the court. Reinach is not registered but may now pay his poll taxes and may register, when the books are opened for this purpose and was taken in order to define the duties of the Commissioner on this point. All persons in Mr. Reinach's situation may now pay their poll taxes, if they do so before next Monday on which day the Treasurer's books will be closed for the year.
